PUBLIC HEALTH ASSOCIATION.

By a vote taken at the annual town meeting March 1921, the sum of $1200.00 was appropriated for the salary of a graduate nurse for public health work in the schools and families where such service was needed. At the same meeting the following committee was elected to procure such a person and proscribe rules and regulations relating to the conduct of the association:

Mary Putney Bachelder, chairman,
 Mary Clay Roby, secretary,
 Anna Belle Woodward,
 Idella K. Farnum,
 Stella Tuttle Thompson,
 Dr. Mackenzie,
 Anson H. Kilburn.

Duties and Privileges of the Public Health Nurse.

The nurse shall visit the sick if called, care for them in their homes, teach the families the simple rules of nursing and hygiene. She shall respond to every new call, but shall continue with the case, only in conjunction with the physician in attendance. Her visits shall not, as a rule, continue more than one hour. Only emergency calls are to be taken at night. Transportation for such visits should be furnished.

Necessary calls, only, to be made on Sundays and holidays. The duties of the nurse shall include maternity cases, attending confinement if possible and one visit daily, prenatal, infant welfare, child welfare, which includes children of pre-school age and school nursing. The nurse is on duty from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m., with one afternoon off duty each week. Any complaint made in writing and submitted to the committee will receive prompt attention.

Where patients are able to pay the fees are as follows: ordinary visits, 10c to 50c; all night, $2.00 to $3.00; Surgical assistance, $2.00 to $3.00; Obstetric, $2.00 to $3.00. All money paid the nurse for fees is turned over to the association to pay traveling and other necessary expenses.

The nurse shall not attend any suspicious case until the attending physician has pronounced the same non-contagious. A copy of the rules may be obtained at any time upon application to the secretary, Mrs. Fred Roby, Andover, N. H.

The report of Miss Davis, who has served the town since May 15, 1920, is hereby appended and speaks for itself. "He who runs may read" and none can fail to be convinced that no money has been more wisely expended by our town than the $1200.00 paid for preventive and restorative work for the public health. This act of the town places Andover in the class of the most progressive towns in New Hampshire. The work among the children in our public schools alone is worth the sum expended. It would be a grievous mistake to deprive these citizens of to-morrow of the benefits of the work so well begun. Miss Davis has proved to be a most efficient and faithful nurse. She has won the esteem of the children, the adults and the physicians with whom she has been associated. She is especially capable in emergencies and has met many during her work of the year.

Respectfully submitted,
MARY PUTNEY BACHELDER.

LIBRARY REPORT.

February 1, 1921—February 1, 1922.

The trustees of the Andover Town Library submit the following annual report.

The Andover Town Library has about 4,039 books of which nearly one-third are in the branch library at East Andover. The number of books circulated is as follows: West Andover 288, East Andover 600, and 1,457 at Andover village. This does not include the number of books circulated from the Cilleyville school, from the Flag Hole school, from Mrs. Graves and Mrs. Smith at Taunton Hill or from Potter Place, as no record has been kept in these places.

On February 7, 1919, Prof. J. F. Morton, trustee Andover Town Library, deposited in the Franklin Savings Bank (book number 22020), two hundred dollars, the gift of Miss Lilian A. Thompson under her will. The bequest is as follows: "I give to Andover, New Hampshire, Town Library, the sum of two hundred dollars, the income to be expended yearly in purchasing books of fiction only." None of this income has thus far been used.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

February 18, 1922.

To the School Board and Citizens of the School District of Andover:

I hereby present my third annual report as superintendent of the schools of Andover. The accompanying honor roll and statistical table cover the fiscal year which began September 1, 1920, and by act of the legislature ended June 30, 1921. This report deals also with matters within the present school year.

We may consider ourselves fortunate in retaining the teachers who were with us last year. Mrs. McFarland of the Flaghole school attended the summer session of six weeks at the Plymouth Normal School. The courses offered at Plymouth and Keene are of great value to the teachers attending them, especially to those having experience but no normal training. We are following as closely as we can the course of study outlined in the State program. As nearly every year some of the pupils promoted to Proctor Academy have found the work there too difficult it seems necessary to be more rigid in the requirement for proper preparation before passing from the elementary school. It is a needless burden to our Academy to carry along freshmen who are not fitted for the work, and it is no less a handicap to the individual pupil. The child who through lack of interest or of ability does unsatisfactorily work in the eighth grade generally does still poorer work in the Academy. It is desirable that our own boys and girls shall be so well prepared that in the Academy they shall set the standard in scholarship.

Few complaints have been made this year concerning transportation, the routes having been well taken care of by responsible men with safe and comfortable teams. From West Andover there are five children conveyed to Cilleyville, where they are doing admirable work. From Taunton Hill four children, and from Boston Hill one, are conveyed to East Andover. The team conveying these two schools was heavily loaded at the beginning of the year, but owing to several families moving, its number has been reduced to five. From Dyers Crossing school the number has been considerably increased since arrangements were first made for transportation to the village. If this number should be further increased or even should it continue as large as now, it may be to the advantage of the district to reopen the Dyers Crossing school. This would necessitate remodeling the building to some extent to bring it up to the standard as to light and sanitary conditions.

The Center building was resingled in the summer and the walls and ceiling at the Center and East were re-tinted. Both buildings need painting and the East will soon require resingling. With special care during the coldest weather the water at the Center was available all last winter, but this winter it froze very early and the supply has been brought from a neighbor's. Since the school building is connected with the village water system it should be so arranged that we need not for several months of the year, depend upon the neighbors. This is especially necessary when the teachers prepare a hot lunch during the winter for all children, at present about twenty-five, who cannot go home for dinner.

No one else has such an opportunity as have the school board and the superintendent for observing the work of the district nurse. In general cleanliness and health, our schools have a much higher standard than two years ago. Through the nurse's talks, her personal interest in individual pupils, and the "Health Crusade" work, many children have learned to sleep with open windows, to eat less candy, and to give up tea and coffee. However, some of the children in the poorest physical condition still have strong coffee every morning. In the last examination about twenty per cent of the children were found to be underweight for their height. The best showing was at Flaghole where none were underweight; the poorest at Cilleyville, where ten out of twenty-two were from six to twenty-eight pounds underweight. In some cases this means a very low grade of school work because the children, being insufficiently nourished, have not the strength and vitality to do good work. The chief causes of underweight or malnutrition are: (1), Physical defects. Diseased tonsils, adenoids, decayed or aching teeth, etc. (2). Lack of home control. Irregular hours, lack of discipline and guidance by parents. (3). Over-fatigue. Late hours, over-activity, too long day. (4). Faulty food habits. Eating irregularly, fast eating, too many sweets between meals, tea and coffee, insufficient breakfast, improper food, not eating enough, omission of milk and cereals from diet. (5). Faulty health habits. Insufficient sleep and rest, lack of fresh air, sleeping with closed windows, worry.

All these conditions can be overcome. Along this line the nurse has done work of great value to individuals and to the town. Through hot noon lunches during the winter term all teachers are cooperating in this health work.

A comparison of statistical tables shows the average membership last year to be the same as for the preceding year, 130, while the average attendance was increased from 119 to 122, bringing the per cent of attendance from 92 to 94 which is a creditable record. The number not absent or tardy was increased from 5 to 13, but the total of tardinesses was decreased only from 187 to 182, which shows indifference to the importance of punctuality. One interesting item in the records is that four children from one family at Cilleyville were not absent or tardy for the entire year. If there could be that interest in every family our records, in most respects creditable now, would be raised still higher.

Because of the change in the school law, reducing the appropriation and basing distribution upon equalized valuation instead of on assessed value, Andover is cut off from state aid this year. This makes it necessary to raise more money than was raised last year. Some expenses, as that of fuel, are reduced. Scholars' supplies have dropped noticeably in price, but there is little change in text books. Transportation is a large expense. If we should open the four schools that have been closed in recent years we should be obliged to count upon eighty to one hundred dollars a week for additional teachers, janitors and fuel, and a preliminary outlay for repairing and remodeling buildings.

We are paying lower salaries to our resident teachers than we should be obliged to pay if we brought in teachers from a distance. It is probable that we shall find it necessary next year to employ at least one or two non-residents. Normal trained teachers with experience are receiving an average salary of $900 in New Hampshire. Teachers without normal training average considerably less; those who have less than four years of high school education average still lower. When we employ resident teachers we know the quality of work they can do. When we employ a stranger we feel the need of insisting upon those qualifications which generally determine the efficient teacher, general education, professional training and experience. A valuable addition to our school program would come from the services of a music teacher. When we had such a teacher some years ago, the children had a splendid start in reading music and in singing. The present pupils have been denied this advantage. At this time it appears quite possible that an arrangement might be made to secure for one day a week the very able teacher who is now on her second years' work in New London. This would seem worth attempting for the coming year. The expense would not be large. The children of Andover should have school advantages equal in every way to those enjoyed by other children.

Respectfully submitted,

IDELEA K. FARNUM,

• Superintendent of Supervisory Union, No. 1.
